WHereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That on the Twentieth Day of January last Mr. John Craufurd, of Doonside, and Mr. William Campbell, of Fairfield, both in the County of Air in North Britain, did each receive a Letter, which Letters had been put into the Post-Office at Air on the Nineteenth Day of the said Month, and of which Letters the following are Copies, viz.

Sir

This is perhaps the most interesting Letter you ever received as your future Safety will depend on

on your Answering its Demands. There are six of us who being reduced to Misery by Misfortune have pitched upon you for our Relief, Providence has made you able and it is our business to make you willing. You will therefore lay £50 Ster: below the Broad Stone on the Extremity of the South End of the Stone dike on your right hand as you go from Slophouse to Ayr and lett it be in Gold or Silver and lett it be done on the 23d or 24th of this present Month and lett it ly one Week, if it is not taken away before the Week expire you may take it Again. If you are so foolish as attempt to know who we are you are undone. One of us will uplift the Money while three Stand on the Watch with a Couple of Good Pistols each and two left at home to take Vengeance on you if you disturb the rest and a Cask of Powder ready to blow up your House — So you see that Silence is equally necessary on both Sides. You will see a Cross Scratch on the Stone by which you may know it, If ever we are able to pay you we have covenanted to do it Adieu
